

The Peace Congress.

The Peace Congress are progressing very leisurely, with their labors, evidently under the impression that time and calm reflection are the best panaceas for the sick patient. They assembled at 10 o'clock this morning, and after remaining in session two hours proceeded shortly after 12 o'clock in a body to pay a complimentary visit to the President of the United States. On arriving at the Presidential mansion they were conducted to the East room, where they were introduced to the Chief Magistrate of the nation by Mr. Tyler, the President of the Convention. The interview was rather of a personal than official character, and there was no expression of opinion on either side as to the position of national affairs. They returned to Willard's about 1 o'clock, and subsequently paid a visit to the Capitol. Great care is taken to keep their proceedings from the public eye, the desire being to prevent the Congressional meddlers at the other end of the Avenue from exercising any influence over their deliberations. It is, however, said that Governor Chase, of Ohio, who has been deemed one of the most impracticable members, has, since his emphatic remark congratulating President Tyler, promising "to follow where Virginia leads," made a speech of the most marked conservative character. The hopes of the friends of the Union are therefore quite bright, and promising of a happy termination of their deliberations.—Baltimore American.

The Movement of the States.

The following is the programme of events connected with the secession movement for the month of February:

Feb. 9.—Tennessee, election for Convention.
Feb. 13.—Virginia, Convention meets.
Feb. 18.—Arkansas, election for Convention.

Feb. 18.—Missouri, election for Convention.
Feb. 23.—Tennessee, Convention meets.
Feb. 28.—North Carolina, election for Convention.

Feb. 28.—Missouri, Convention meets.
Feb. 28.—Arkansas Convention (if called by the people) will meet March 4th, and the North Carolina Convention (if called by the people) on the succeeding Monday, March 11th.

In Tennessee, Arkansas and North Carolina, the people will vote for delegates, and at the same time designate whether or not it is their will that a Convention shall be held. If a majority say "aye," the Conventions will assemble at the times appointed. In Virginia, Tennessee, Arkansas, Missouri and North Carolina, the action of their respective Conventions will be submitted to the approval or disapproval of the people.

THE CANADA EXTRADITION CASE.—According to the Montreal Commercial Advertiser of the 2d instant, there will be some difficulty in conveying the fugitive slave Anderson to England. The Advertiser says: "It is understood that the next steamer will bring an officer of the Court of the Queen's Bench charged with the service of the writ of habeas corpus in this case. And it is to be presumed that the administrator of the Government will at once cause the surrender of Anderson to the bearer. But in that case how is he to be taken out of the country at this season? He cannot go through the United States without certainty of capture, and the land route to Halifax is utterly impracticable. If he is, however, brought to Montreal in the meantime, to await the opening of navigation, the friends of freedom here will have an opportunity of bringing him on a writ of habeas corpus before the Superior Court of the district, and its decision will render his remission to England unnecessary, and vindicate the character of our Judges from the reproach brought on it by their brethren at Toronto.

THE SLAVE POPULATION.—The returns of the national census show a very material growth of the slave population during the last decade—a growth, indeed, which may surprise many who supposed that slavery was declining under the pressure of abolition propaganda, circular denunciation and fanatical raids. In every Southern State, except Delaware, Maryland and Missouri, the increase of the slave population has been nearly in the same ratio as that of the free population, white and colored; and in the aggregate the growth of the slave population in the fifteen Southern States has kept pace with that of the whole population of the United States—that is to say, it shows an increase of about thirty per cent in ten years. And very curiously, even in Missouri—surrounded on three sides by free States—where we were told that slavery was rapidly dying out, the number of slaves has increased from 87,451 in 1850, to 115,419 in the year 1860, and this, too, with abundant opportunity of running the trade out and a very great loss from this cause.—N. Y. Herald.

MR. BARBOUR, OF CALIFORNIA.—The position of Mr. Barbour, if we understand it, is conservative. But after the Convention meets, if it shall be found that all efforts to effect a compromise have been exhausted, we do not believe there is a man in the State who will be more willing to take prompt action than Mr. B., and we are sure there is no one who will bring more weight and influence to bear on the side he may advocate. Under these circumstances, we think that both the prompt secessionists and the conservative men may safely trust in Mr. Barbour, for he is eminently a Southern man, and all his interests are identified with that section, as his course in the Legislature last winter abundantly proved.—Blue Ridge Rep.

MR. DELANY OF FAIRFAX.—So far as the Delegate elect for this county, Mr. Delany, (who was elected as "union" candidate,) is concerned, we know him to be a high-minded and honorable Virginia gentleman, one who loves the Union as formed by our fathers, and who is desirous of restoring that peace and unity which should prevail in a Union of Equality. He is in favor of exhausting every means, consistent with State honor, to secure this peace and unity, but he would never consent to purchase it at the price of the honor and interests of Virginia. And hence we infer that Mr. D. is not opposed to secession as a dernier resort.—Fairfax News.

GROUND-HOG DAY.—Last Saturday was "Ground-Hog Day." There is a superstition, that if his hogship should come out of his hole on that day, and see his shadow, he would return and remain for seven weeks; but if he should not see his shadow, he would consider it safe to come out and remain out, at his leisure. That is, the weather, for seven mortal weeks, would be exactly the reverse of what it was on the 2d of February. In these dignities he didn't see his shadow; ergo, we are to have fair weather for seven weeks.—Truth Legion.

COTTON.—Nine hundred bales of Cotton arrived here yesterday by the Virginia and Tennessee Railroad, from Mobile, Ala., on its way to Norfolk, by the South-Sea Railroad. We are informed that several thousand bales were delivered at Memphis, Tenn. a few days since, by the Memphis and Charleston (S. C.) railroad and several thousand more are coming up the river to Memphis, from Mobile, all of which will be shipped on the Virginia and Tennessee road to Norfolk.—Lexington Republican.

OLDS, & Co.—Coal Oil (superior) Water Lined Oil, White Oil, Spirits Turpentine, Linseed Oil, Cod Liver Oil, pure Castor Oil, and Alcohol, for sale by J. R. PIERPOINT, No. 112, King-street, feb 9

40 BBLs. Apples, received, and for sale by feb 5 DAVY & HARMON.

COMMERCIAL.

Monetary.

Money matters are about as last reported. The demand for money is active, while the supply is short, and remittance from the country comes in very slowly, causing some inconvenience in mercantile circles. There is not much good paper offering on the street, while the rates of discount are high, and the price of gold is high. Exchange is scarce, and the rate is 1 1/2 per cent. On Philadelphia, 1 1/2 per cent. On Baltimore, 1 1/2 per cent. On New York, 1 1/2 per cent. On Chicago, 1 1/2 per cent. On London, 1 1/2 per cent. On Paris, 1 1/2 per cent. On Hamburg, 1 1/2 per cent. On Bremen, 1 1/2 per cent. On Antwerp, 1 1/2 per cent. On Amsterdam, 1 1/2 per cent. On Rotterdam, 1 1/2 per cent. On London, 1 1/2 per cent. On Paris, 1 1/2 per cent. On Hamburg, 1 1/2 per cent. On Bremen, 1 1/2 per cent. On Antwerp, 1 1/2 per cent. On Amsterdam, 1 1/2 per cent. On Rotterdam, 1 1/2 per cent.

Alexandria Market, February 8. The market for Broadstuffs during the week has been quiet, with light receipts and a limited demand. In Flour, there have been some transactions, and we note a fair enquiry for city and Washington consumption. We quote sales of Superfine at $2.25; Extra $2.35; and Family at $2.40; and $2.50 for Southern. Wheat has been in tolerably fair receipt, but with no active activity and a decline of 2 1/2 cts. There were sales on "Change" yesterday of fair to good white at 12 1/2, 13 1/2, and 14 1/2; and 15 1/2, 16 1/2, and 17 1/2. In fair request, with sales of about 600 bbls. and a decline of 1 1/2 cts. and in good demand—supply limited. Oats are more active, and prices have advanced, and we now quote 30c, and firm. In Seeds, there is a better feeling, with an increased demand, but prices are unchanged. Corn is active, with a good supply. Groceries are without change, but prices are firm. Provisions steady and unchanged.
